As the summer sun begins to cast its warm glow over the Adriatic coast, ITS Arcademy invites locals and tourists alike to immerse themselves in the cutting edge of contemporary fashion. Starting on Sunday, June 2nd, the museum will offer free admission every Sunday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., with the last entry at 7 p.m. Visitors can also enjoy a complimentary guided tour in English at 2:30 p.m., providing deeper insights into the exhibits.

However, there's a catch: tickets cannot be booked online, and access is subject to availability. Once the museum reaches capacity, entry will be managed on a one-out, one-in basis. This arrangement ensures a manageable crowd, allowing guests to fully appreciate the space and the artistry it houses.

Italy's first museum dedicated to contemporary fashion, ITS Arcademy, is a treasure trove of innovative designs and creative narratives. It serves as a hub for exploration, inspiration, and learning, catering to fashion enthusiasts and curious minds alike. The museum's collection showcases visionary ideas from emerging talents worldwide, offering a unique glimpse into the future of fashion.

Don't miss the chance to explore this extraordinary museum, where each visit promises to reignite your creativity and broaden your artistic horizons. Whether you are a seasoned fashion aficionado or simply looking for a stimulating way to spend a summer Sunday, ITS Arcademy is a destination that promises to enrich and inspire.
